Eritrean National Council for Democratic Change (ENCDC) North America Concluded its Regional Congress

Press Release

ENCDC North America Successfully Concluded its Regional Congress December 1-2, 2018 in Denver Colorado. In this historic Regional Congress of ENCDC, members reaffirmed their commitment to the organization by endorsing the draft documents of the Political Charter, the Road map, and its Bylaws. A review of the documents, and feedback from the participants were documented for the General Congress to be held in early 2019. With the approval of the Executive office of ENCDC, members discussed the reservations and time extension requests by some ENCDC members who didn't join the Regional Congress, and unanimously approved extending the deadline to January 12, 2018 for the election of representatives from the cities that had requested extension.

The assembly also conducted discussions on current issues affecting Eritrea, and ways of reaching out to political organizations, civic associations, and notable Eritreans outside Baito. The Regional Congress concluded by electing the following representatives for the General Congress from those delegates that participated:

- Dr. Mohammed Beshir, Los Angles
- Dr. Yobio W/Mariam, New York
- Mr. Seyoum Tesfai, Atlanta
- Mr. Kemal Ali, Denver
- Mr. Mohmoud Aderob, Phoenix
